-PRESS RELEASE-
May 18, 2010

DOUBLE FATALITY

This morning a meeting was held between a Mount Pleasant Police Department Traffic Unit Investigator and 9th Circuit Solicitor Scarlett Wilson to present the investigation of the May 11, 2010 collision which claimed the lives of James Hines and James Doucette. After thorough review, it was determined no criminal charges would be filed by their office.

A Uniform Traffic Citation will be issued to Charles McDonald for the offense of Traveling Too Fast for Conditions.

The victim's family and McDonald's attorney, Lionel Lofton, were contacted and advised of the investigation results. The court date is set for June 16, 2010 at 8:30 am.
